Commercial Litigation. Modern commercial litigation is complex, fast-moving and international. Barristers therefore need to be intelligent and pro-active. They also need to be experienced in the law and practice of different jurisdictions. New Square Chambers has expertise at all levels of call in commercial disputes in the High Court and county courts in the UK, particularly in the Chancery Division and the Commercial Court.

International Jurisdiction

And Commercial Litigation

sometimes called transnational litigation, is the practice of litigation in connection with disputes among businesses or individuals residing or based in different countries. The main difference between international litigation and domestic litigation is that, in the former, certain issues are more likely to be of significance — such as personal jurisdiction, service of process, evidence from abroad, and enforcement of judgments.

Finally, it should be noted that District Judge Batten found this to be one of those unusual cases identified by Munby J (as he then was) in Sheffield City Council v E [2005] 2 WLR 953 in which a person could lack subject matter capacity whilst still having litigation capacity. It is worth, perhaps, reproducing the relevant paragraphs in full because they are so clear an example of an approach ...
