Philosophy of Education

Throughout my educational experiences, I have witnessed a wide array of teachers and teaching styles. I have been in classes that have largely impacted my life, and others that have left a mere dent of influence. I have come to be able to differentiate between the characteristics that comprise a good teacher, and those that do quite the opposite.

Philosophy of Education When it comes to my philosophy of education, I lean more toward essentialism. Essentialists believe that there is a common core of knowledge that needs to be transmitted to students in a systematic, disciplined way. The emphasis in this conservative perspective is on intellectual and moral standards that schools should teach. The core of the curriculum is essential knowledge and skills and academic rigor.
