The difference between raising boys and girls. Marge and Phil have two children Ryan age 12 and Natalie, age 8. While Natalie seems to respond to a reasoned approach, discussing her behaviour, using a critical tone, firmness, this doesn't work at all with Ryan and he's 4 years older. They don't understand how two children can be so different.

The difference between raising boys and girls | Robin Alter

Is parenting a boy different than parenting a girl. Yes there is a big difference. The difference is like daylight and dark. Boys will be boys who grow up to be men. Girls will be girls who grow up to be women. Boys and Girls have different bodies, boys are very strong. So parenting a boy would be totally different than parenting a girl.
