The Records of the Grand Historian, also known by its Chinese name Shiji, is a monumental history of ancient China and the world finished around 94 BC by the Western Han Dynasty official Sima Qian after having been started by his father, Sima Tan, Grand Astrologer to the imperial court. The work covers the world as it was then known to the Chinese and a 2500-year period from

For example, some records managers in public sector organisations recommend keeping an employee's records until they reach the age of 100, especially for pension purposes. Employers should always review the length of time personal data is kept, consider its purpose when deciding how long to retain it, and update, archive or securely delete information if it
