Sixth, the Spiritual Disciplines are means, not ends. The end—that is, the purpose of practicing the Disciplines—is godliness. I define godliness as both closeness to Christ and conformity to Christ, a conformity that 's both inward and outward, a growing conformity to both the heart of Christ and the life of Christ.

Just as every athlete must train to win, every Christian must make their faith strong through spiritual disciplines. Nobody can sit on the couch eating Cheetos for months and hope to compete. The best athletes are intensely disciplined.

12 Spiritual Disciplines That Will Make Your Faith Strong

Answer: Discipline is defined as "training expected to produce a specific character or pattern of behavior." Discipline is not part of the sin nature, but it is a natural component of the Christian life. In fact, almost nothing of any significance in our lives is ever accomplished without it. Spiritual disciplines can be described as those behaviors that augment our spiritual
